

Networking Your Way to Career Success Panel & Reception

Co-sponsored with the ACBA Young Lawyers Division

Thursday, January 26

5:00-6:00 p.m. – Panel Discussion

6:00-7:00 p.m. – Reception

Panelists' Bios

Richard J. DeBlasio, Esquire is a 2014 graduate of the Duquesne University School of Law. He is currently in-house counsel at the Housing and Redevelopment Insurance Exchange (HARIE) and Excalibur Insurance Management Services. Before joining HARIE and Excalibur, Rick was an associate attorney at Burns White, LLC in the workers' compensation group where he defended employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators in workers' compensation matters. Prior to joining Burns White, Rick was an associate attorney at Luxenberg, Garbett, Kelly and George, P.C. where he represented injured workers in workers' compensation matters. You can reach Rick at rdeblasio@excaliburinsmgmt.com.

Jonathan J. Ehret, Esquire is a 2013 graduate of the Duquesne University School of Law. He is currently an associate at Robb Leonard Mulvihill where he has defended various insurance companies, businesses, and professionals in commercial litigation, professional malpractice, and insurance related litigation. Before joining RLM, Jonathan was an attorney at Babst Calland and Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote in their energy groups where he handled transactional matters for clients in the energy and natural resources industries. During his time at Duquesne, Jonathan was a law clerk at Margolis Edelstein and for the Honorable W. Terrence O'Brien. You can reach Jonathan at jehret@rlmlawfirm.com.

Andria M. Krupa, Esquire is a 2011 graduate of Duquesne University School of law. She is currently an associate attorney at Cordell & Cordell, P.C., a family law firm, where she focuses exclusively on custody, divorce, support, protection from abuse actions, and related matters. Prior to joining Cordell & Cordell she was an associate attorney at Raphael, Ramsden & Behers, a family law firm, again focusing exclusively on custody, divorce, support, protection from abuse actions, and related matters. Andria is a member of the ACBA Family Law Section and the ACBA Young Lawyer's Division (YLD) and has been actively involved in many facets of the YLD serving on YLD Council, the YLD Public Service Committee, the YLD Communications Committee, co-chairing the YLD Strike Out Hunger event, and was previously a member of the Bar Leadership Initiative (BLI) class. You can reach Andria at akrupa@cordelllaw.com.

Genevieve A. Pecharka, Esquire is a 2013 graduate of the Duquesne University School of Law. She is an associate attorney at Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., where she practices in the Real Estate and Oil & Gas Groups. Prior to working at Dickie, Genevieve was a title abstractor and title examiner at Purple Land Management, LP, in Canonsburg. Genevieve is a member of the ACBA Young Lawyers Division, and serves on the YLD Public Service Committee and the LGBT Rights Committee. Genevieve is also an avid participant in numerous pro bono programs coordinated by the Pittsburgh Pro Bono Partnership and Dickie McCamey, and was a nominee for the 2015 David B. Fawcett Pro Bono Service Award. You can contact Genevieve at gpecharka@dmclaw.com.

Robert D. Raver, Esquire is a 2012 graduate of Duquesne University School of Law. Since May, 2011, Bob has worked at Pollock Begg Komar Glasser & Vertz LLC, a family law firm located in downtown Pittsburgh. Bob's practice spans all aspects of matrimonial law, including equitable distribution, custody, support, protection from abuse actions, adoptions, and marital agreements. Bob is a member of the family law sections of the ACBA and the PBA, and he serves as a Professionalism Committee Co-Chair for the ACBA Family Law Section. Since January 2013, Bob has served as a Co-Editor for the Pennsylvania Family Lawyer. You can reach Bob at rraver@pollockbegg.com.